

Dear all,

I am delighted to announce a brand new 'in harmony' vocal retreat, set on the beautiful North Yorkshire coast. This 2-night November getaway could be the perfect warm gift to yourself as we approach the Winter months! Think good company, warm harmonies, nourishing food, fresh air and sea views.....stepping away from everyday cares and working on your voice in a positive, supportive atmosphere. You can learn new songs and skills, connect with others, enjoy your own space, and grow in vocal confidence.

You'll be able to check in at the characterful Cober Hill Hotel, near Scarborough, from 3.30 on Friday 6th November, and the weekend will finish with a final sing after lunch on Sunday 8th. The weekend will be filled with song, with a range of sessions(including a singing walk if weather permits!) all led by the 'in harmony' team - myself(Jessa Liversidge) and the inspiring Mary Bourne. We are both very experienced vocal leaders, teachers, and performers, each bringing different skills and approaches but together making the perfect team. For those wanting to work on their voice individually, one to one lessons are available to book for a small extra charge - just mention this when booking.

The price for the weekend is £399 per person - this includes all the group activities, accommodation in an ensuite room, and all your meals

(Friday evening meal, all 3 meals on Saturday, breakfast and lunch on Sunday) plus unlimited teas and coffees. There is NO SINGLE SUPPLEMENT which is quite unusual for this kind of event. The only additional costs would be any other drinks bought at the hotel bar (you can bring your own wine but there is a corkage charge), and the 1-to-1 lesson if you'd like to take that opportunity. (£30)

In harmony retreats are very special, and we've had wonderful feedback from those who have taken part in the weekends at Snape Maltings. You can read more of this year's feedback here, but there are a few quotations from testimonials below....

"the weekend exceeded all my expectations"

"a safe space of mutual support"

"singing, fun and friendship"

"voices were raised in song and joined as one in a harmonious and supportive community. A unique and unforgettable musical experience."

"The In Harmony retreat is truly magical, and it fills up my 'wellbeing pot' for months afterwards."

What next?

If you'd like to take part in 'in harmony NORTH', please let me know as soon as possible by email. Places are limited as we like to keep a close community on these weekends and give everyone enough of our time.

To reserve your place, all you'd need to do is send over a deposit of £50. I'd then need another payment of £215 by 1st May, then the remainder (£134/£164) by 1st September. All payments are non-refundable but can be transferred if you can find someone to take your place.

If you are interested but have questions, ask away! Just reply to this email and ask anything you like.

As time goes on, I'll have questions about dietary requirements etc - the hotel can cater for any needs given enough information and notice. If you have specific accessibility needs, please let me know straight away to help me allocate the most suitable rooms.
